Councillor to celebrate 90 years of the Nationals in the region

Gundagai Shire Councillor, William Maslin, today confirmed he will be attending the celebration of 90 years of the Nationals in the Capital Region. The celebration is of the contribution of the Nationals to the people and communities of regional NSW.

The Burrinjuck and Monaro electorate councils of the NSW Nationals are joining together to host a special evening to mark the contribution the Nationals have made to the region.

The guest of honour will be the Rt Hon Ian Sinclair AC, who served as a Senior Government Minister and was Leader of the National Party, Leader of the House and Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Special guests for the evening will also include; Andrew Stoner MP, Leader of the NSW Nationals, Katrina Hodgkinson MP, Member for Burrinjuck, The Hon Melinda Pavey MLC, Duty MLC for Monaro, Kay Hull MP, Member for Riverina, Fiona Nash, Senator for NSW, The Hon Ron Boswell, Senator for QLD and John Williams, Senator for NSW.

"This is a fantastic way to celebrate the contribution of the Nationals to our communities. The Gundagai community is very lucky to be represented by members of the National Party, the only political party committed to the interests of rural and regional Australia," said Cr Maslin.

"The dinner at Old Parliament House will be excellent and will serve as a great opportunity to catch up with my State and Federal counterparts and mingle with the party members," Cr Maslin concluded.

End.
